Farm & Cruise with the Originals

Farm life & Fiords

Get more out of your Fiordland visit with two unforgettable Kiwi experiences in one day. Start with a visit to a working farm to meet friendly farm animals, watch skilled sheepdogs in action, see a sheep shearing demonstration, and enjoy genuine farm hospitality over morning tea.

Then continue to Milford Sound for our signature Nature Cruise, getting incredibly close to towering waterfalls and spotting seals and maybe even the rare Fiordland crested penguin. Choose to self-drive or leave the driving to us and travel in comfort aboard our premium glass-roof coach along the spectacular road to Milford Sound. Don't miss this unique combination of experiences that showcases the people and places that make the South Island of New Zealand extraordinary.

Dare to get out there

The Woodstone Farm Experience

Step into real farm life with a visit to The Woodstone Farm. Watch as clever working dogs sprint across the paddock, responding to whistles and calls to round up sheep, see the skilled farmer demonstrate sheep shearing. Then it's your turn to meet the locals: friendly farm animals ready for feeding. Enjoy being hosted on an authentic Kiwi farm by locals who love what they do.

Morning Tea at the Woodstone Farm

Enjoy warm Kiwi hospitality with a delicious home-baked morning tea featuring traditional New Zealand farm-style treats. Share stories with your hosts about life on the land while soaking in the peaceful rural atmosphere. It's the perfect way to experience genuine Kiwi farm life and hospitality in a relaxed, authentic setting.

Milford Sound Nature Cruise

Board our cruise vessel for an unforgettable journey through one of the world's most dramatic fiords. Purpose-built for this environment, our boats give you incredible views of the waterfalls like the famous Stirling Falls, as you cruise beneath towering cliff faces, and watch for wildlife including seals, dolphins, and rare Fiordland crested penguins.

Our spacious boat offers both open viewing decks and comfortable indoor areas with floor-to-ceiling windows, ensuring spectacular views whatever the weather.
